

GOVERNMENT OF PAKISTAN
MINISTRY OF COMMERCE

Subject: Syllabus for Written Test

Ministry of Commerce has authorized Lahore University of Management Sciences (LUMS) to take written test for selection of Bs 18, 19 and 20 against the vacancies of Trade Officers abroad. The written test is scheduled to be held shortly at Islamabad. The syllabus of written test is attached.

2. For further details candidates are advised to visit following website frequently.

www.commerce.gov.pk

www.lums.edu.pk

(Dr. Adnan)
S.O (Admn.II)
Tel: 9203896

Syllabus

Written Test for Selection of Trade Officers, 2011

Part I: Test of Subject Matter of International Trade and the WTO

Four structured questions will be asked, to be answered in 60 minutes, from the following syllabus:

- Basic structure of Pakistan's economy & industry
 - Macroeconomic conditions in Pakistan
 - Major imports, exports and trends overtime
 - Major trading partners
 - Potential for export promotion
 - Major industries and their exportable surplus
- Trade theory & policy: basic concepts
 - Comparative advantage, absolute advantage
 - Tariffs, quotas, NTBs and their implications
- Political economy of trade policy
 - Import substitution vs. export promotion
 - Lobbying and groups affected from free trade
- International marketing:
 - International marketing environment
 - Competing in international markets
 - Researching and analyzing overseas markets
 - Sources of information
 - Market entry methods
- The Harmonized Commodity Description and Coding System:
 - Basic knowledge about Harmonized System codes of World Customs organization (HS codes)
 - Applications of HS codes
 - Combined Nomenclature
- Regionalism:
 - SAARC, SAFTA, ECO, RTAs signed by Pakistan, etc.
 - Understanding of other regional groupings
 - Subsidies of advanced countries and impact on Pakistan
- GATT 1994, GATS, TRIPS
 - Regulatory framework in Pakistan
 - National Tariffs Commission
 - Major anti-dumping cases
- Dispute settlement mechanism of the WTO
 - Pakistan's experience
 - Major cases
- New round of talks: Doha Development Agenda

Part II: Test of Data Response

To test analytical abilities, data response questions would be asked to be answered in 30 minutes. The data response questions would be based on economical data to be taken from government reports, e.g., Economic Survey, newspapers or magazines, etc.

Part III: Test of Computer Skills

This part of the test is aimed at examining computer skills of the candidates in word processing, Excel, power point, e-mail and internet usage. The mode of examinations for this portion of the written test could be multiple-choice questions, structured questions or true-false questions to be answered in 30 minutes.