ADVANCED COURSE ON TRADE IN SERVICES

GENEVA, 19 - 23 SEPTEMBER 2022

Programme outline

This outline indicates a number of possible topics that the Course could explore. All issues would be addressed at an advanced level, building on participants' already developed understanding of trade in services. The final selection of topics, and their focus will be determined on the basis of the interests expressed by selected participants.

Thematic cluster 1: From the GATS to RTAs

- Legal structure, Scope and coverage, key obligations: from the GATS to RTAs;
- Scheduling approaches and related issues: from the GATS to RTAs;
- Specific commitments and regulatory measures not subject to scheduling: how far services RTAs are better than the GATS?

Thematic cluster 2: New perspectives on services trade, and overview of analytical tools available for trade in services policy analysis

- Major Trends in World Services Trade: global services trade; services trade of developed and developing economies; role of services foreign affiliates, modes of supply; Services and value-chains; "TIVA - Trade in Value Added", "Servicification", digitalization of services trade;
- Measuring trade in services: the Manual on Statistics of International Trade in Services; the interaction between agencies in trade data collection; where to find data; how to improve data situation at the national level; the role of technical assistance and capacity building;
- Navigating the data: available web-based tools for trade policy analysis (I-TIP services, Services Trade Restrictions Index (STRI); trade in services statistics databases).

Thematic cluster 3: Selected policy issues and main emerging negotiating questions

- Review of developments in ICT, and ICT-enabled services, i.e. general trends and certain segments in which developing countries have experienced export success. State of play in WTO discussions on e-commerce and implications for developing countries; digitalization of services trade and implications for policy making;
  - Tackling Regulatory Barriers to Trade in Services – The relationship between Articles XVI, XVII, XVIII and Article VI; existing regulatory disciplines - Obligations in Article VI:1-3 & 6; Negotiations on services domestic regulation in the WPDR and the JSI SDR, the Reference Paper on Services Domestic Regulation
  - Investment Facilitation for Development in the WTO: the link between Trade and Investment, including the Services – Investment Interface and GATS. Negotiations on Investment Facilitation for Development (background information, scope of application, disciplines under negotiation and SD&T provisions);
  - Movement of persons: how labour and immigration laws and regulations relate to the GATS and specific commitments under the Agreement;
  - Services trade and Environmental sustainability: State-of-play of recent discussions on environmental services;
  - Trade in services: preparedness for the next pandemic: health-related services trade to deal with gaps in national health systems and role of trade in services in medical goods GVCs. Transport and logistics services: build the resilience of supply chains;
  - Other issues as identified by participants.

ADVANCED COURSE ON TRADE IN SERVICES (In English)***

Geneva, 19-23 September 2022

Invitation to present candidates

The WTO Secretariat is organizing an Advanced Course on Trade in Services (In English) from 19 - 23 September 2022 in Geneva. The Course is a "Level 3" specialized training activity implemented within the WTO progressive learning framework and it represents the highest level of learning among WTO training activities.<sup>1</sup>

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the advanced course are to:

- Update participants' knowledge base of the main GATS provisions, including on issues related to classification and scheduling of commitments;
- Familiarize participants with recent developments in the field of services, and provide an overview of analytical tools available for trade in services analysis;
- Improve participant's understanding of services-related policies such as movement of persons, and investment;
- Address selected policy- and emerging negotiating issues arising from changes in the trade in services landscape.

The course will be delivered through a mix of interactive exercises, lectures, case-studies, and peer learning.

INVITATION TO PROPOSE CANDIDATES & CANDIDATE PROFILE

The course is targeted at government/economies in transition officials at mid- to senior level with at least two years relevant work experiences who are directly involved in the formulation of trade in services policy and/or the conduct of multilateral or preferential services negotiations.

WTO OMC

The Governments/Economies in Transition of Members and Observers to the WTO, which are eligible to benefit from training and technical cooperation activities, are invited to submit the names of one or two officials meeting the requirements set out below, for consideration in the selection process.

Candidates are required to have an advanced understanding of the General Agreement on Trade in Services. They should be willing to share experiences, prepare short contributions, and participate actively in all sessions. The course does not target experts from ministries regulating individual services sectors.

Candidates should have completed a WTO training activity (E-Learning<sup>2</sup> or a face-to-face/virtual course) on trade in services or have demonstrably commensurate knowledge or professional experience. They should also possess an excellent ability to communicate in English both orally and in writing.

COSTS COVERED FOR SELECTED PARTICIPANTS

The Secretariat of the WTO makes available thirty (30) fellowships for this activity. Each fellowship covers the following: a round trip airplane ticket in economy class; daily subsistence allowance; a terminal expenses allowance; and accommodation for the duration of the course. In case that an insufficient number of qualified candidates apply to fill the 30 funded places, up to five additional applicants may participate in the workshop at their own expense.

****

The attached Application Form must be returned, completed and signed by the candidate as well as by the nominating national authority which presents the candidate, via the Permanent Mission/Embassy to the WTO, at the latest by 08 July 2022. Selected participants will receive confirmation directly. Additional administrative information, travel details and ticket will be sent shortly after the selection has taken place.

The WTO Secretariat reserves the right to postpone or cancel this activity in the event of force majeure or other reasons that render the execution of the activity impracticable for the organizers.
