Dear Mr. Muhammad Ali Shahzada,

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS:
KDI SCHOOL-THE COLOMBO PLAN
LONG TERM SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMME 2013

The Colombo Plan Secretariat (CPS) is pleased to invite nominations from our member countries for a one year Master Degree in Public Policy and Masters Degree in Development Policy scheduled to commence in September 2013, at KDI School of Public Policy and Management, Republic of Korea.

2. This programme is jointly organized by The Colombo Plan (CPS) and KDI School. For academic year 2013, seven places have been offered to the Colombo Plan member countries. Both the CPS and KDI School will bear the following costs:

- (i) Return economy air fare;
- (ii) Admission process fees;
- (iii) Tuition, housing and living stipends

3. As discussed in the Colombo Plan Council meeting on 23 September 2010, one option to implement the Long-Term Scholarship Programme is on a cost sharing basis. Therefore, sending countries will need to bear the following expenses:

- (i) Visa fee
- (ii) Book allowance of 300 USD per month for 12 months

3. We attach herewith, a copy of the project notification containing details of the programme. Please advise interested candidates to read it carefully and fully understand the procedures of application, which should be sent to the Colombo Plan Secretariat without sending to the university.

5. Two sets of application forms with relevant supporting documents along with the guarantee letter for the book allowance should reach the Colombo Plan Secretariat on or before 10 May 2013. Details of this programme and the application form can also be obtained from our website – www.colombo-plan.org/. In addition, interested candidates are advised to visit KDI's website www.kdischool.ac.kr to apply for the course on line, concurrently. We regret that no consideration will be given to late and incomplete submission.

Thank you.
